Liquor Licenses issued locally (Full definitions provided in the RI General Laws, Chapter 3-7)

Class F – Daily liquor license, holder is limited to sale of beer and wine; issued only to religious organizations, state non-business corporations and political organizations.

Class F-1 Daily liquor License, holder may sell all alcoholic beverages; issued only to religious organizations, state non-business corporations and political organizations.

Class A – package store

Class BH – Allows for mini bars in hotel and guest house rooms; allows for the sale and service of bottles of alcohol to registered guests in their hotel/guest house rooms.

Class BL – allows sale of only beer and wine in restaurants (“victualing houses”)

Class BT – allows for sale of all alcoholic beverages in hotels (defined in State Law as “tavern keeper” and must provide overnight accommodations).

Class BV -- allows sale of all alcoholic beverages in restaurants (“victualing houses”)

Class C – Saloon License; in Newport the one Class C License has basically the properties of Class BV; however, it must close at Midnight.

Class D – Private Club; alcoholic beverages may be consumed only by members and their guests.

Class J – Convention Hall License; holder may sell all alcoholic beverages; licensee must be able to accommodate five hundred or more persons at tables at one time.

Class K—Ancient Tavern License – issued to the owner of any building which has had a public and continuous use and license as a tavern for 10 years or more prior to 1730; basically has the same privileges of a Class BV restaurant.

Class T—Legitimate Theater

State-issued Liquor Licenses (with uses in Newport)

Class G -- for passenger-carrying marine vessels and trains; sale of alcoholic beverages on marine vessels while at dock for one-half hour before scheduled departure time, up to departure, must be approved by Council.

Class P – authorizes caterers, who must be licensed by the RI Health Dept., to furnish and sell alcoholic beverages at events to which they are catering food. Caterer must purchase the alcohol at a Class A package store.
